FILM INDUSTRY SPENDS OVER $2 BILLION IN GEORGIA DURING THE FISCAL YEAR

ALIVE 11

New numbers from the Georgia's Governors Office show that filmmakers spent more money in Georgia during the current fiscal year than ever before - more than $2 billion. That makes Georgia one of the top three film and production centers in the country -- sitting behind only California and New York.

THE STORY OF FEMINIST PUNK IN 33 SONGS

PITCHFORK

In creating this feature Pitchfork looked for feminist rallying cries that have over the years questioned, explored, and destroyed stereotypes, in which the form and sound of the music has mirrored the message. From past to present, Washington State has always had a large part in this lineage, as evidenced by the likes of Bikini Kill, 7 Year Bitch, Bratmobile, G.L.O.S.S., and Sleater-Kinney staking their claims on this list.

SOUTH SEATTLE ENTREPRENEURS AIM TO CREATE NEW ARTS HUB FOR HILLMAN CITY

CROSSCUT

Sitting on Rainier Avenue in the heart of Hillman City, "Maxim's," a former dance club and restaurant is hard to miss. Behind its pink walls, three South Seattle entrepreneurs are in the process of re-purposing the venue into a restaurant and performing arts space called Black and Tan Hall. Their ambition is no less than to create a new community hub for Hillman City.
