

Pedestrian Master Plan and Progress Report Update

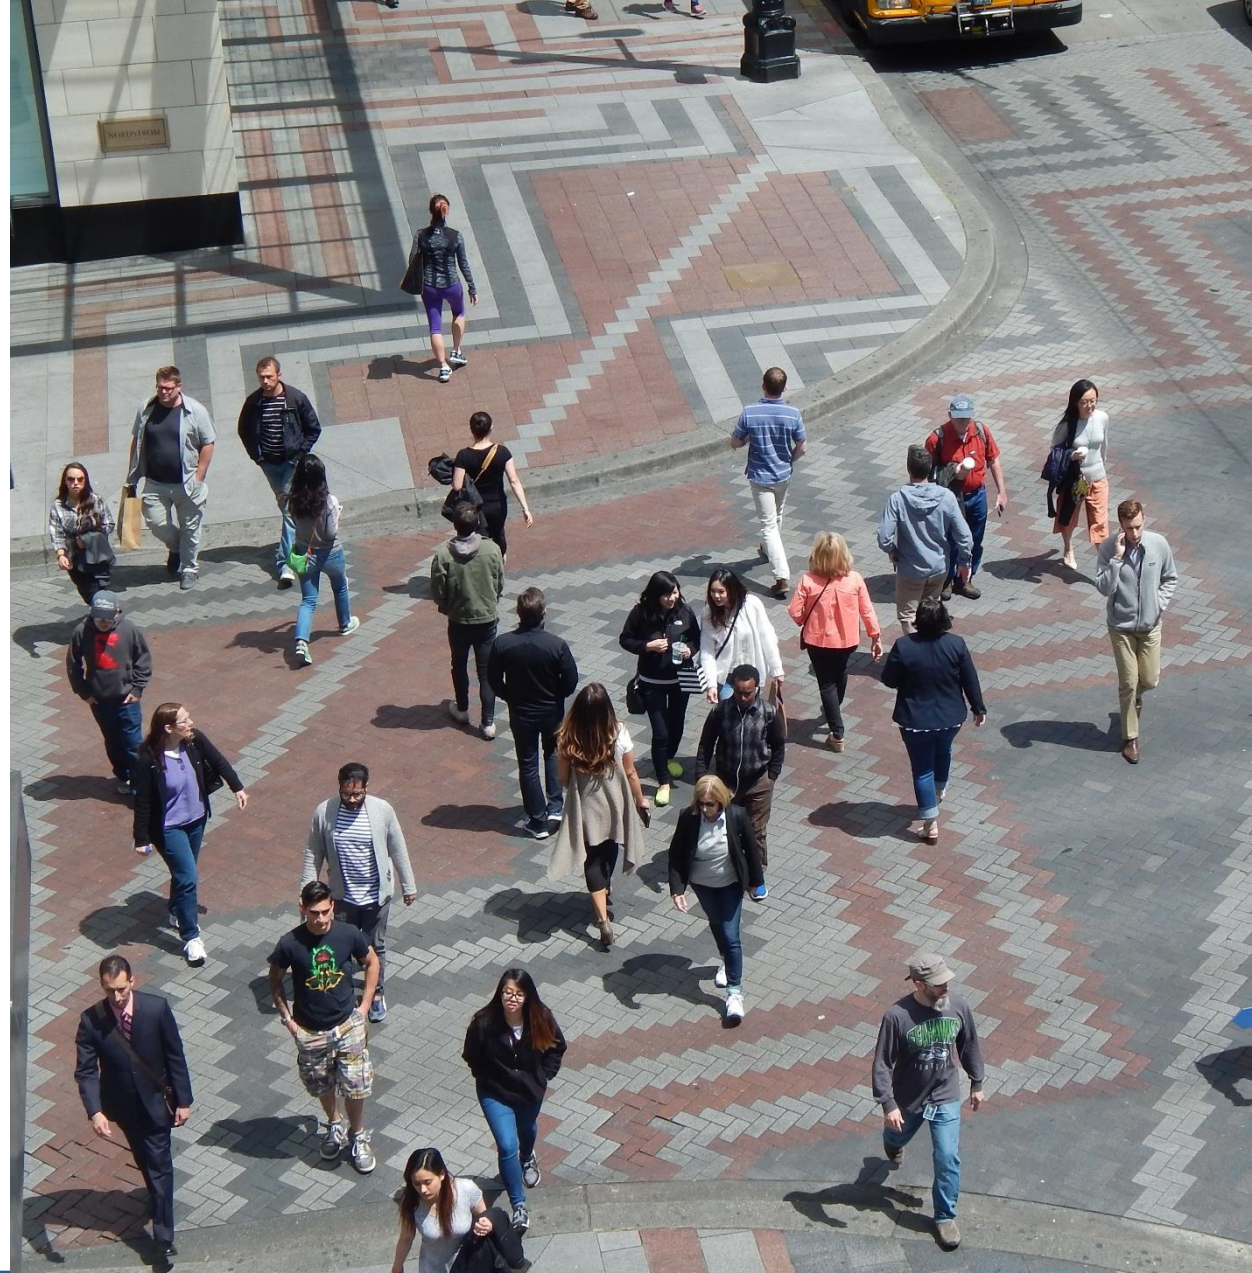

Presentation Overview

- PMP Background
- Implementation Plan Role
- Project Prioritization Framework
- Progress Report
- Next Steps

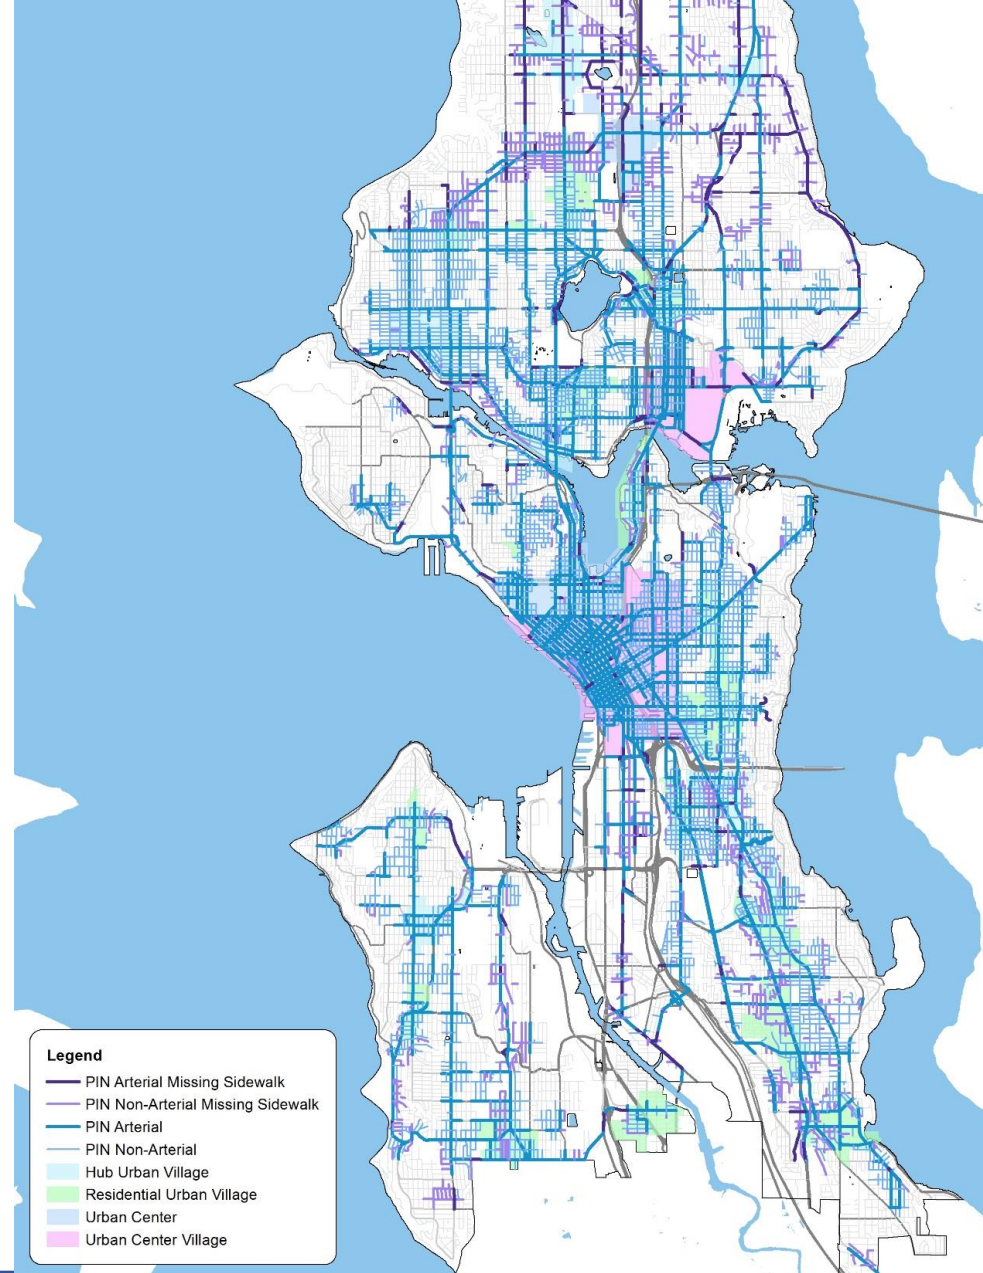

PMP Background

- Plan updated in 2017
- Vision: “Seattle is the most walkable and accessible city in the nation.”
 - Goals, objectives, strategies and actions to achieve vision
 - Six performance measure to gauge progress
- Establishes new system for prioritizing ped investments
 - Priority Investment Network (PIN)
 - Proximity to transit and schools
 - Establishes base scoring using safety and health/equity factors

Priority Investment Network

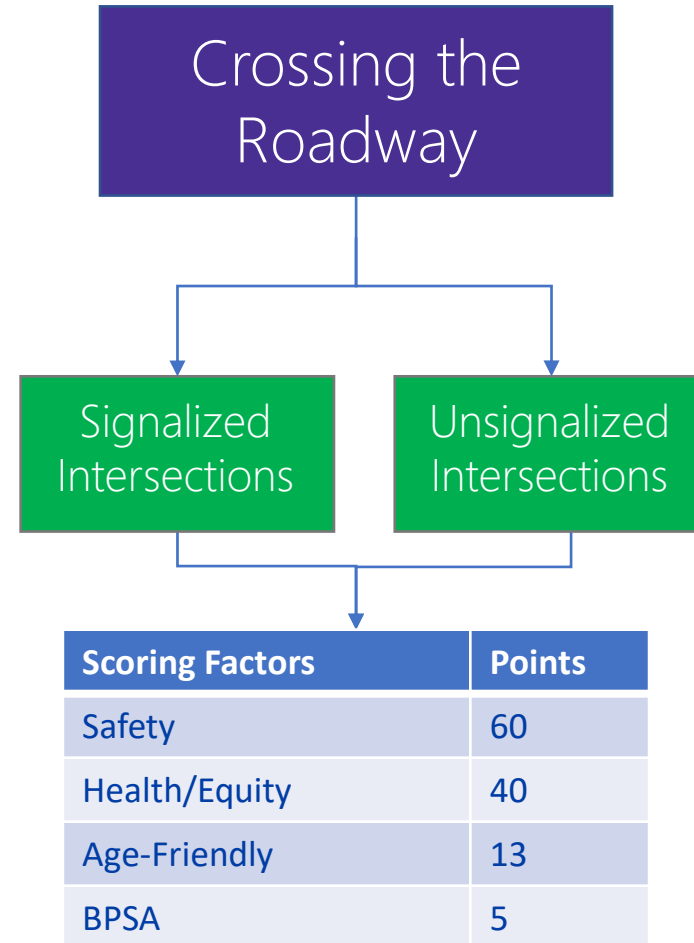

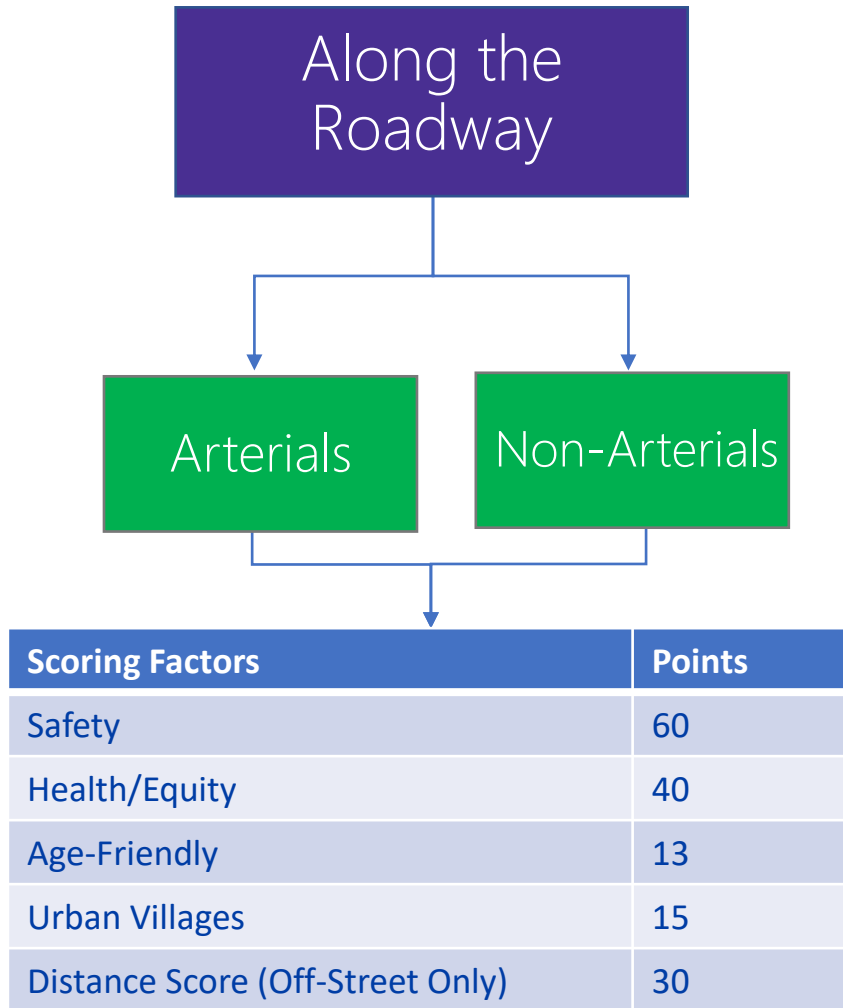

PMP Implementation Plan

- 5-year work plan and project list
- Project prioritization framework
- Progress report
 - Updated performance measures
 - PMP strategy and action progress
 - Project delivery updates

Prioritization Process

2020 PMP Progress Report

- Due to impacts of COVID-19 on delivery capacity and budgets, planning progress-report only update
- Will present progress report to SPAB in October
- Full PMP Implementation Plan to be delivered in 2021

Questions & Comments?

David.burgesser@seattle.gov | (206) 485-8781

http://www.seattle.gov/transportation/pedestrian_masterplan/

www.seattle.gov/transportation

