

HOLIDAY CONSTRUCTION MORATORIUM

Last Revised 6/22/18

Overview

Seattle Department of Transportation (SDOT) does not allow construction work during winter holidays in streets or sidewalks in the Downtown Retail Core, Pioneer Square, and the Chinatown-International District (CID)—this is known as the “Holiday Construction Moratorium.” By restricting construction for the winter holidays, we support Seattle businesses during the peak shopping season and reduce traffic congestion during this busy time of year.

Exceptions to the moratorium are sometimes allowed—SDOT evaluates each request on a case-by-case basis and grants exceptions under special conditions authorized by the SDOT Director. Typically, only a few exceptions are granted each year. This CAM provides instructions on how to apply for an exception to the holiday construction moratorium that will allow you to continue working through the winter holidays in a Holiday Construction Moratorium area.

Moratorium Boundaries and Holiday Dates

There are two moratorium areas in Seattle, each with a different restriction period:

- (1) The Downtown Retail Core, which includes Pioneer Square. The moratorium period here is from Thanksgiving Day through New Year’s Day (January 1).
- (2) The Chinatown-International District (CID). The moratorium period here is the 6 weeks around Lunar New Year, starting three weeks before Lunar New Year and ending three weeks after. (Note: The exact date of the Lunar New Year holiday changes each year. Consult SDOT Street Use Construction Permits webpage for more information. www.seattle.gov/transportation/permits-and-services/permits/construction-use-in-the-right-of-way)

Maps of the moratorium areas are on pages 4 and 5 of this CAM.

In addition to restricting work within the Holiday Construction Moratorium areas, sometimes we restrict construction adjacent to moratorium boundaries if it impedes public mobility getting to and from designated Holiday Construction Moratorium areas.

Moratorium Exceptions

To work in or occupy the right of way in Holiday Construction Moratorium areas during holiday restriction periods, you must submit an exception request. Please note: A few types of work are excluded from this rule. Refer to the Excluded Work section of this CAM.

In general, SDOT grants construction exceptions for short-term work. Short-term work lasts from one to several nights, and the work occurs in the evening hours from the period after stores and businesses are closed until 6 AM. This work may occur only when there is no significant noise impact, and the right of way must be clear and restored for public access by 6 AM.

Long-term exceptions (those lasting longer than several nights) may be granted if your use of the right-of-way does not significantly impede traffic or pedestrian flow.

Exceptions are also allowed for emergencies that pose immediate threat of property damage, personal injury or loss.

Excluded Work

Certain types of low-impact, short-duration work are allowed within Holiday Construction Moratorium areas during restriction periods. You do not need to submit an exception request for the following types of work:

- Walk-through scaffolding in the right of way. Walk-through scaffolding does not require submittal of an exception request if the scaffolding is erected prior to the holiday moratorium restriction period and is the only impact to the right of way. Requests to install walk-through scaffolding during a moratorium period will not be granted.
- Work under an Annual Vehicle Permit. Annual Vehicle work does not require that you submit an exception request. However, Annual Vehicle work in Hubs does require coordination of work dates.
- Other short-duration, low-impact occupation of the ROW, such as moving pods or ladders on sidewalks is allowed during moratoriums and you do not need to submit an exception request for these types of work.

When to Submit

Submittal dates for exception requests depend on the moratorium area. The submittal deadlines for each area are listed below.

DOWNTOWN AND PIONEER SQUARE

- Priority submittal deadline: August 31
- Final submittal deadline: September 30
Requests will not be considered after this date.
