

KAISER PERMANENTE SAC

UPDATED September 30, 2020

JOHN AKAMATSU

Mr. Akamatsu is a Capitol Hill native who practices commercial and residential architecture. He served on the Capitol Hill Community Council and the Capitol Hill Champion--the former helped defeat the poorly vetted "Regulatory Reform" and the latter advocated for the best community use of the light rail sites. He also served on the Seattle Opera Bravo Board and Three Dollar Bill Cinema Board. John advocates good, thoughtful design, and vibrant streets that attract pedestrian activity and citizens of all sorts. He and his husband Rich have become avid gardeners, rescuing many plants from neighboring tear downs. He can often be found working on his '66 Mustang in a KP parking lot.

PABLO CARRASQUILLO

Mr. Carrasquillo is a long-time Capitol Hill resident who first moved into the neighborhood in 1991. He is the Ticketing Director for Showbox Presents - producing concerts at the historic Showbox Theater and Bumbershoot. Since 2005, he has served as HOA President at the 214 16th Ave Condos, where he lives with his wife and their young daughter. A graduate of UW, Mr. Carrasquillo has a great interest in monitoring the ever-changing Seattle landscape.

DAVID DAHL

Mr. Dahl is an architect who has worked on projects at a variety of scales in the Seattle area. He is passionate about the design of public spaces, and the histories and ecologies that shape urban environments. David is also a member of the Princeton Co-operative Apartments on Capitol Hill, having previously served on the building's board. David received a Bachelor of Science degree in Architecture from the University of Virginia and a Master of Architecture degree from the University of California, Berkeley.

REBECCA FOX

Ms. Fox is a retired urban planner whose work focused on long-range policy planning. A long-time Capitol Hill resident and Group Health/Kaiser Permanente consumer, she served on the Citizen Advisory Committee for Group Health's Master Plan. She is especially interested in encouraging thoughtful development that respects existing neighborhood character and supports the residential and business districts adjacent to the Kaiser campus.

JACKSON HOLTZ

Mr. Holtz has lived in the neighborhood since 2002. He is a writer at the University of Washington and previously worked for Kaiser Permanente in communications. He's been a Kaiser Permanente member since 2012 and experienced the transition from Group Health to Kaiser Permanente as both a member and employee. Prior to Kaiser Permanente, Mr. Holtz worked for SEIU 775 in public policy and before that spent nearly decade as a daily newspaper reporter covering a number of areas including civic issues.

BRANDEN REYNOLDS

Mr. Reynolds has 10 years of experience in the construction industry. Over this time he has worked with a variety of public and private institutions such as King County, City of Seattle, Sound Transit, and NAVFAC. Branden strives to create an environment of teamwork and understanding. His wide range of industry experience helps him manage successful projects meeting both design and client goals.

KRISTIN RYAN

Ms. Ryan has a real estate development firm, Barrientos Ryan, that specializes in multi-family and civic development. She specializes in working with non-profit organizations and government entities to develop facilities that serve their communities and stakeholders with inspired places. She focuses on collaborative approaches that draw on the strength of all the participants to achieve success. Ms. Ryan moved to Capitol Hill from New York City in 2011 and is happily raising her family with two young children in the neighborhood. She cares deeply about supporting the growth of our city and neighborhood, with good transportation options, increased density, and walkable, pedestrian-friendly urban environments.

AARON TERRAZAS

Mr. Terrazas has lived on Capitol Hill since 2014 and brings the perspective of a longtime renter to the Kaiser Permanent Standing Advisory Committee. He works as an economist at Zillow and was previously an economist at the U.S. Treasury Department in Washington, D.C.

MICHAEL WANDERER (NON-MANAGEMENT KAISER PERMANENTE REPRESENTATIVE)

Mr. Wanderer grew up in Montana and graduated from Gonzaga University before moving to Seattle where he graduated from the University of Washington Medical School and completed his Family Practice residency at Group Health Cooperative. He practiced as a Family Physician on Capitol Hill for 40 years, faculty in their residency program, active in the medical staff leadership team, and served on the medical staff governing board. He retired from clinical practice a few years ago. Since retirement, he has been working on increasing connections for teaching and diversity between UW Medical School and Kaiser Permanente Staff. He also works with the Washington State Parks Foundation.

Mr. Wanderer and his wife moved to Capitol Hill in 1978 and raised three young men and have two wonderful granddaughters ages 3 to 7. He is interested in seeing Kaiser Permanente engage with the community to enhance Capitol Hill's vibrant community.

SHEILA GULATI (ALTERNATE)

Ms. Gulati is a technologist and venture capitalist with a local business on Capitol Hill. She was formerly an executive at Microsoft. Ms. Gulati is passionate about health and wellness and about creating a strong and sustainable neighborhood on Capitol Hill.
