1	Unfortunately, Pride for us affects my business in a more negative way than positive. While I support the community and all that Pride weekend stands for, as a business owner who relies on foot traffic, the way booths are set up directly blocks access to my business as people need to squeeze through booth gaps and do not see our signage. The fencing for Jai Thai who is next door blocks the sidewalks too and encroaches into our space and also causes loitering of smokers and trash build-up. The fact that I have to pay for a booth outside of my space that directly blocks my entrance is also ridiculous. Retail businesses depend on weekends as being our highest performing sales days and for the last five years we have ended up having to close early. The most recent Pride, we pre-planned to close as the labor cost for staying open outweighed our sales. Another issue we have is how drunk many people attending Pride are while "shopping." We have experienced more shoplifting incidents along with rude and destructive behavior in our space. Pride represents a loss for our business and interactions that do not represent the majority of our regular customer behavior.	12/3/2019 10:03 PM

1	Having an environment that is a safe place give participants the choice of coming to our bar and having drinks, maybe see a show. They're wonderful and fun patrons, it's nice having them around celebrating.	12/8/2019 1:30 PM
2	Pride brings community together in Capitol hill. It's spotlights the history of this neighborhood, in contrast to its gentrification.	12/7/2019 2:29 PM
3	It brings in a lot of people and business to our business	12/6/2019 7:24 PM
4	It sort of helps business?	12/6/2019 7:14 PM
5	It has a great way of bringing the neighborhood together and also bringing in more foot traffic.	12/6/2019 6:08 PM
6	Pride provides a space for Gay City to connect LGBTQ people to the resources they need - housing, health, and more.	12/5/2019 7:44 AM
7	Increased foot traffic to our block resulting in increased sales	12/5/2019 12:50 AM
8	Increase business sale	12/4/2019 9:57 PM
9	We find it is not more beneficial than if the streets were clear and customers had normal access to the stores.	12/3/2019 10:16 PM
10	pride weekend is a benefit to our neighborhood and business as a result. Its has added revenue most years, while some years remaining flat. We find it important either way.	12/3/2019 1:54 PM
11	high volume of customers	12/3/2019 5:44 AM
12	It is the quintessential celebration of our incredible LGBTQ+ community. It brings in a large group of customers that otherwise might not visit the venue and allows us to showcase the local LGBTQ+ talent we have right here in Seattle.	12/3/2019 5:11 AM
13	It is our busiest weekend of the year for us. This brings thousands of customers that seldom come to Capitol Hill that week and weekend of Pride. Its become a annual tradition that people look forward to every year. It would be nice to see the Capitol Hill Pride Festival occur both Saturday and Sunday (closing Broadway Down for both days) instead of just Saturday. We find that alot of people do not want to partake in the parade or Seattle Center since its simply too congested and older LGBTQ people would love be able to come to the hill instead on Sunday.	12/2/2019 10:43 PM
14	Pride brings in a lot of foot traffic and increases sales 25%.	12/2/2019 10:22 PM
15	Opens a space for the community to celebrate at our establishment; whether it be at our bar or at one of our pride themed dance parties.	12/2/2019 6:55 PM
16	Attracts a large crowd	12/2/2019 6:51 PM
17	There is a great sense of community that weekend, as well as increased business. We also have seen the event grow which has helped.	12/2/2019 2:39 PM
18	We see great foot traffic	12/2/2019 2:16 PM
19	Pride does not provide any financial benefit to our business. Sales are so bad we generally close because it's not worth paying our employee.	12/1/2019 2:32 PM
20	In previous years our production calendar did not overlap, but in 2019 we programmed a show (They/Them The Festival) intentionally to coordinate with Pride events. Unfortunately, the street is blocked off to foot traffic during the weekend, so we were unable to accommodate audiences in the way we imagined.	11/27/2019 6:12 PM
21	Traffic and exposure to the neighborhood.	11/26/2019 2:30 AM
22	Not sure at this point as we have not been included in the events.	11/26/2019 1:56 AM

30	It brings awareness to the community, along with people to the area. We directly benefit from that.	11/15/2019 4:36 PM

32	As the producer of Wildrose Pride it is only a benefit for us. It is a small profit event for us but is an essential event for our community. We provide a reasonably priced, safe venue to celebrate pride.	11/15/2019 11:05 AM

37	This year we hosted a performance on Trans Pride that was about the Stonewall Riots. The performance started in the park and moved from Cal Anderson to our performance space. In this case, we got direct walk-up audiences from Pride to our organization. As a queer female founded and female/POC led organization, we benefit from traffic in the neighborhood of folks who would be interested in our programming, like LGBTQ BIPOC folx.	11/11/2019 10:48 PM

1	Positive outcomes are always the same, gathering of people celebrating themselves and others. It's a great time. Negative changes, the nazi's are getting more comfortable and people are scared of them rightfully so, they vandalize and go out looking for violence.	12/8/2019 1:30 PM

6	We have now chosen to close on Pride for reasons I stated previously. Pride has become busier and with that, behavior and interactions we are not comfortable with due to alcohol and general intion in the area is to celebrate Pride, not to support the brick and mortar businesses. Pop up food vendors and jewelry stands and bars I'm sure do very well.	12/3/2019 10:16 PM

Q15 If Pride were undergoing changes, what are the aspects you would keep? What would you change?

1	No comment. I don't want it to stop	12/8/2019 1:30 PM
2	None	12/6/2019 7:24 PM
3	Keep it the same.	12/6/2019 7:14 PM
4	We would like to see Pride creating more queer sober spaces for those that are in recovery or have no interest in drinking, create some smaller events for queer folks who do not like crowded spaces, and develop an event centering the importance/history of pride. Also, we would like to see other pride festivals be supported. While we love and support PrideFest/Seattle Pride, we would also like to diverse prides supported more - Northwest Black Pride, Latinx Pride, etc.	12/5/2019 7:44 AM
5	Better co-ordination of scheduled events with the neighborhood	12/5/2019 12:50 AM
6	Make it two days	12/4/2019 9:57 PM
7	I would change booth setup and keeping a mindful map of access to the brick and mortar businesses paying premium rents and dues to on Broadway. Businesses should have direct access left open or to opt for a booth, free of charge.	12/3/2019 10:16 PM
8	na	12/3/2019 1:54 PM
9	Expand the festival to include all businesses on Pike St. similar to CHBP or allow liquor licenses to expand into a greater footprint to help expand certain aspects of the festival and minimize impacts of having a stage in front of your store.	12/3/2019 5:44 AM
10	I would find ways to expand it to more parts of Capitol Hill.	12/3/2019 5:11 AM
11	I would request it to be a Saturday and Sunday Street event. Maybe on Saturday more of a Vendor Selling event (as it is now) but on Sunday still keep Broadway Closed and Allow restaurants to filter on to the street and have a few stage entertainment. This will help in the congestion of the Seattle center and for those that do not want to head down there or feel unsafe to go. Perhaps Sunday make it more of a Art and Artist on the Street / Food/ and entertainment only	12/2/2019 10:43 PM
12	Move more vendors closer to pike/pine.	12/2/2019 10:22 PM
13	None come to mind. I like what it has grown into.	12/2/2019 6:55 PM
14	I like the larger scale outdoor events happening along side the usual businesses. I think ideally we could spread the event out over a longer period of time to maybe keep out some of the related congestion but i know that might not be feasible.	12/2/2019 6:51 PM
15	You might consider a larger clean up effort for Monday am.	12/2/2019 2:39 PM
16	na	12/2/2019 2:16 PM
17	Understanding that the event is important for the community and that our financial burdens are not the priority, I would suggest moving the street vendors away from local businesses so retail storefronts aren't blocked. Additionally, if businesses can prove their sales take a hit from the Pride event through sales history, it'd be great if Pride could cover that loss.	12/1/2019 2:32 PM
18	More events!	11/26/2019 2:30 AM
19	Change: We would include more organizations who have not had the opportunity to participate	11/26/2019 1:56 AM
20	none	11/23/2019 3:27 PM
21	Continue to hold events in the neighborhood and park, and continue to promote events that happen outside of Pride weekend.	11/22/2019 8:04 PM
22	The Wild Rose's beer garden impacts me a lot and every year it is bigger. The plans they bring to the neighbors are always not indicative of what they build and it makes it frustrating that they shut down so many of my neighbors and produce so many drunk people right on my doorstep. I wish they were more accountable for the ambiance they create and the impact on their neighbors.	11/21/2019 2:20 PM
23	I would respect the fact that this has been happening long before condos and new businesses have arrived.	11/20/2019 8:20 PM
24	I think it should be bigger	11/17/2019 1:53 AM
25	Let nonprofit community-based orgs participate without fees.	11/15/2019 6:58 PM
26	The Pride Parade is no longer a community event. It is basically a mobile corporate job fair. The one part that feels truly celebratory and necessary is TransPride. I am not trans, but I support that part of the weekend, as it reminds me of what it felt like when I was coming out as gay in the 80s. I wanted to see myself reflected at Pride events, and to feel the necessity of community and our human-scale activism. I was in Act-Up when we did die-ins on Broadway at Pride. I don't even go to the parade now. It's gross. I don't know how you change it, but I know it's not meaningful to me as a community member and it is not a weekend that is ever successful for me as a brick and mortar biz even though I am right in the heart of the Gayborhood.	11/15/2019 6:24 PM

27	Capitol Hill is Seattle's playground. For Pride I would like to keep everything, and encourage more daytime events. The baseball game, the parades, the stuff on Broadway. It's all good.	11/15/2019 4:36 PM
28	Location. Eliminate the reward chain going to the same people.	11/15/2019 1:26 PM
29	Wouldn't change	11/15/2019 11:05 AM
30	Personally I would bring the parade back to The Hill. The whole Seattle Center thing is not fun.	11/15/2019 1:06 AM

32	n/a	11/14/2019 1:17 AM
33	N/A	11/13/2019 12:56 AM
34	The only thing I would change is opt out of corporate sponsorship and focus on community organizers and coalitions that are building up community. They need the representation and PR, and corporations don't. It feels like they're using Pride for their own profit margin.	11/11/2019 10:48 PM

1	Security as far as police being more active and present would be nice. Businesses security detail can only do so much.	12/8/2019 1:30 PM
2	There is always room for improvement. I have listed some of the changes above we would like to see.	12/5/2019 7:44 AM
3	Enjoyment - long hours working during Pride Social - seeing old friends at work and on the street Safety - Police are well placed but stretched thin	12/5/2019 12:50 AM
4	Too many people under the influence would seem to be a safe place where all can go act wild. Police are primarily focused on the crowds and entertainment but brick and mortars face theft and stress dealing with customers who come in to impulsively look/touch but not necessarily shop.	12/3/2019 10:16 PM
5	In general, I think the Pride festival on Capitol Hill has a lot of cheesy vendors selling throwaway crap. The drag shows and other more cultural events are amazing, but far less of a focus from what I've seen.	12/1/2019 2:32 PM
6	There are many things I have heard about Pride, but for some reason we have not had any contact with organizers or have information on how to participate.	11/26/2019 1:56 AM
7	It does not feel like a local celebration. It's a massive corporate festival.	11/25/2019 10:25 PM
8	Wild Rose's security is frequently rude, blocks the sidewalks without warning us, which provokes long detours to get back to our own businesses from the other side of their closure area, and generally aren't interested in our feedback.	11/21/2019 2:20 PM
9	I think it should benefit more social organizations	11/17/2019 1:53 AM

10	As I said above, my organization doesn't participate in Pride, so I answered this based on my personal experiences. And honestly, Pride leaves me cold in recent years. The downtown events are too corporate; the Capitol Hill events are too disjointed or focused on fenced-in alcohol. I am nostalgic for the early 90's, when it really felt like a community-centered event, celebrating ourselves and our struggles, engaging folks in the political battles of the day, and providing a safe haven for us to be ourselves without censorship. Things have gotten better - we can be ourselves everywhere in the city and all year round. And that's a good thing. But Pride is no longer special and it's become just an excuse for corporate advertising.	11/15/2019 6:58 PM
11	Pretty sure I offered those reasons in my previous answers.	11/15/2019 6:24 PM
12	Evenas one of the security on site for pride, i can look around and say "it could be better/safer".	11/15/2019 1:26 PM
13	I think there are ways Pride could think about its focus and its accessibility, and who it's for. I'd love to see more representation of POCs and of different economic backgrounds/causes within queer communities. The presence of corporations really does undermine the sense of social cohesion for me.	11/11/2019 10:48 PM

17	The security staff are plentiful, nice and are respectful to guests. This is different than other festivals I go to, and it is very much appreciated. One suggestion is to figure out how to limit capacity in the area directly in front of the stage given the bottleneck at the Comet corner. Lizzo's set was scary-crowded at that bottleneck this year. I had to hang on to a window frame to avoid being uncontrollably caught in the human tides.	11/22/2019 8:19 PM
18	They could at least go back to providing passes to neighbors. It has become this monster event that brings people from all over to consume in our neighborhood but they give very little back to our community.	11/21/2019 2:32 PM
19	Later start Friday. More open. Make less alcohol available in the festival so people enter the businesses	11/20/2019 8:29 PM
20	N/A	11/15/2019 7:01 PM
21	The city needs to finally understand that it is allowing a private, for-profit event to occur without paying a facility fee. The neighborhood is the facility, and we are not compensated for the grave losses to our businesses. I would start by making it a smaller event, if it were allowed at all. The gates are a complete deterrent to businesses. The entire mood of the neighborhood changes, and people avoid coming here because they don't want to deal with festival participants. Nighttime feels dangerous to queers and womxn and people of color. It's kind of a nightmare unless you are a beer vendor, and even the bars get trashed.	11/15/2019 6:36 PM
22	For the city to welcome and work to support the event more. Increase transportation, especially late night, set up geo fencing for ride share, set up a arts and events department that increases music and cultural events in the city.	11/15/2019 4:48 PM
23	Stronger supervision of the all ages section especially considering drug use, statutory rape, and alcohol consumption. Id kick neumos and their ownership out (yes,I know they essentially run it, i dont care). More of police presence. Security recieving more support from police.	11/15/2019 1:39 PM
24	No changes	11/15/2019 11:15 AM

26	Buses for transporting folks from remote lots	11/14/2019 2:24 AM
27	It should be free.	11/13/2019 11:44 PM
28	Make it every other year. This would be an interesting thing for most Seattle festivals—Seafair Blue Angels, Block Party, Bumbershoot, etc. Develop interest though scarcity. Also acknowledge that a minority of people hate the disruptions of these festivals and have no choice than to endure them. All voices should matter	11/13/2019 1:01 AM

1	It divides the neighborhood physically and unless you're attending it offers little benefit.	12/6/2019 6:12 PM
2	It seems like a popular event and draws quite a crowd. I do not know about the safety and security concerns.	12/5/2019 7:47 AM
3	It's not a festival for locals. We're locked into or out of our homes/businesses so CHBP can run its business in public streets for 3 days.	11/25/2019 10:32 PM
4	It's a huge disruption and now that it functions basically as an expensive music festival the neighborhood residents get very little enjoyment if they aren't into three to four badly amplified musicians at once.	11/21/2019 2:32 PM
5	Again, my org doesn't participate, so I answered for myself. I live just off Pike, east of the primary festivities, and I experience Capitol Hill Block Party as a lot of noise and a time that I try to avoid walking through the Pike/Pine area. In other words, it's an event that brings in people from other neighborhoods and makes my neighborhood no longer feel like my own. It does not inspire social connection and a sense of community. But I'm middle-aged and not the target audience, and I know a lot of people love Capitol Hill Block Party. So take my comments with a grain of salt. And get off my lawn.	11/15/2019 7:01 PM

For social connection and cohesion, again it's highly disruptive to the local businesses.	11/11/2019 10:59 PM

14	I have, alongside many other business owners, tried for years to advocate for limits on this festival, and we eventually gave up due to the sense that y'all do not care, and the organizers themselves intimidated and outright bullied many of us. I have personally gone out of my way to forge a decent relationship with the remaining lead of that organization, but that doesn't change my feelings about the festival itself. It literally takes me the rest of the summer to catch up, if I even can, from the annual loss of business due to this event. It's a disaster.	11/15/2019 6:36 PM
15	The city should support art in the communities. Otherwise events like this and music venues will disappear. Art Saves Lives.	11/15/2019 4:48 PM

I am a HUGE supporter of free speech, activism and demonstration, but because every single event now begins at Cal Anderson Park, these marches also shut me down. We come to work. We open our doors. There is no need to have riot cops funneling peaceful anti-war or anti-trump protests into narrow corridors and then setting off flash bombs and causing panic. Q59 In terms of Special events in Capitol Hill, is there anything else that the city/special events committee should be aware of?

Answered: 12 Skipped: 61

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Please consider working with LGBTQ organizations for more special events centering LGBTQ people, LGBTQ people of color and LGBTQ youth. This neighborhood still has a strong appeal and resonance with the LGBTQ communities.	12/5/2019 7:53 AM
2	They should continue to be supported and promoted and valued.	12/3/2019 2:02 PM
3	nope	12/3/2019 6:20 AM
4	Events like Pride and Capitol Hill Block Party are unbelievably important to the DNA of not only Capitol Hill but Seattle as a whole. The city should be prioritizing their wellbeing more than ever as the city changes at such a rapid pace. The events are what made Seattle enticing in the first place.	12/3/2019 5:23 AM
5	MORE EVENTS during the summer would be great. Such as the Bite of Broadway/ Once weekend month closing down Broadway (from John St. to Roy St. and allowing restaurants to filter onto the street, Businesses sell on the street/ and local artist well on the street. This will give the area more of a community feel.	12/2/2019 10:59 PM
6	Though some events may be a temporary nuisance to neighboring businesses, they are integral in honing a cultured and vibrant community. This neighborhood is known for its rich culture. Restricting such events only dull what makes Seattle a great city. Amazon has done more to the city to wash out all of the culture. We cannot afford to wash it out anymore. Keep Seattle's vibrant expression of culture alive!	12/2/2019 7:21 PM
7	The city should be supporting and promoting the events that exists and continuing to support new events. The streets should be alive, arts, music and culture promoted. Development should not negatively effect the essence of this neighborhood.	12/2/2019 2:50 PM
8	Thank you for requesting our input! We've made it work in this space, and understand that there are things about these events that cannot be changed. We have adjusted our production calendar ahead of time, in order to accommodate these events. We appreciate being informed early about date changes, because it can affect our production calendar (confirmed about 18 months ahead).	11/27/2019 6:16 PM
10	I want to believe that all these events have a less-immediate benefit, just by the virtue of bringing people to the neighborhood in the hope/assumption that they will come back at other times and patronize local businesses. I am not sure that really happens though. It is nearly impossible to keep a business open in this city. The reasons for that are myriad and not limited to special events, but the fact that special events don't seem to benefit so many of us in the neighborhoods where they occur should be of more concern to those who are in charge of them.	11/15/2019 6:57 PM
11	Do a better job supporting businesses and events in the area.	11/15/2019 5:17 PM
12	Stop supporting people just because they are rich. You are supporting drug dealing and prostitution.	11/15/2019 1:50 PM
