

Gift of the Puget Mill Co.
 for which it is named. (Successor - Pope and Talbot)
 Sawmill named for Puget Sound which was named by Vancouver in 1792 for Lt. Peter Puget of the Expedition.
 Originally intended as part of the Greenbelt Boulevard System.
 Delridge Way named in 1940 to denote the dells and ridges thru which the thoroughfare runs.

Hudson St. probably honors Wm.
 L. Hudson, Comdr. of the Wilkes Expedition - 1841, for whom various geographic features were named.

Dawson St. honors the Alaskan City or Dr. Lewis R. Dawson - (see Puget Park) Named applied to "Puget Blvd." by Engr. Dept.

WEST SEATTLE GOLF CO.
 (original dedication continuing boulevard thru (Golf Course) to 35th and Avalon Way)

9.6 Ac.
 (incl. 3.52 Ac. parcel along North side of Puget Park)

Gift 1912 Puget Mill Co.
 Portions vacated 1931, '55, '63
 New deed 1955 for blvd, pkway + street purposes.

WE 5-2520

Property dedicated for
 "PUGET BLVD."

In 1955 Planning Commission & Park Staff recommended "boulevard" designation be dropped, property to be held in connection with future development of Puget Park and access to W. Seattle Golf.