How to Prepare your Payroll Expense Tax Return

Column A: Taxable Annual Employee Compensation*

Column B: Enter your total payroll expense for Seattle for this tax period.

Column C: If eligible, deduct the total payroll expense for employees with annual compensation of $150,000 to $399,999.99.

Column D: Subtract the amount in column C from the amount in column B and enter the result in column D

Column F: Multiply the amount in column D by the tax rate shown in Column E and enter the result in Column F.

Totals: Drop down result from Column F to Total Tax Due. If filing after the due date add applicable penalty/interest and add to Total to be Paid.

*The payroll expense tax is on payroll expense attributable to employees whose annual compensation is $158,282 or more in the current calendar year.
This threshold amount may change with inflation based on the CPI-U Index each year.

The non-profit healthcare entities deduction is only allowable from Jan.1, 2021 through Dec.31, 2026.

The Deduction threshold of $150,000-$399,999.99 does not increase with inflation based on the CPI-U this year

Online Reporting

This form can be filed online at www.filelocal-wa.gov. There is a fee to file electronically.

Report by Mail

Make check payable to City of Seattle. Payments must be sent with the tax return when tax is due. Forms received without payment will not be considered "received" if taxes are owed. Late penalties and interest shall apply if either the form or check are postmarked after the due date.

Late Penalties

A form with any tax due must be received by the due date to avoid late penalty. If received after the due date penalty shall apply as follows:

Nine percent (9%) of the tax due if postmarked after the due date; or

Nineteen percent (19%) of the tax due if postmarked after the last day of the month following the due date; or

Twenty-nine percent (29%) of the tax due if postmarked after the last day of the second month following the due date.
