

Question and Answer

2025 Collective Network Request for Proposals

Updated: October 23, 2025

Question #	Topic	Question	Answer
1.	Eligibility	I work for a DV org in Spokane. Are your funds available to all of WA state or is it Seattle specific?	This investment is only for programs and services in the city of Seattle.
2.	Budget/Funding	Is there a budget template?	There is no budget template, however applicants are asked to outline their proposed budget as part of section “E. Budget” of the narrative questions within the application.
3.	Application format	Are there any document formatting instructions? Single or Double space? Font? Font size?	No, SOCR does not require specific formatting such as font, text size, or spacing. However, we recommend that applications are typed and use easy-to-read fonts and text sizes, such as 11 or 12-point text.
4.	Application format	Are the application cover page, project timeline and budget included in the 5 pages max.	No—only narrative questions A through E, which include an outline of your budget, is limited to five pages. The cover sheet and project timeline may be submitted separately and do not have a page limit.

5.	Application format	In regard to the application cover page, are there any instructions on what to include?	Please use the cover sheet template provided on page 2 of the RFP Application Document .
