

CITY OF SEATTLE BOARDS & COMMISSIONS

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT RECOGNITION AWARDS

Nominate an individual and/or Board or Commission for a City of Seattle Civic Engagement Recognition Award.

The City of Seattle's 73 Boards and Commissions are represented by over 1000 service minded individuals. Board and Commission members are subject matter experts in their respective fields and offer lived experience and diverse perspectives to inform elected officials' decision making on important issues. Boards and commissions and the individuals appointed by elected officials and the community at-large contribute to the betterment of Seattle in meaningful ways and deserve recognition for their dedication to civic engagement and public service.

Nominate an individual or an entire board or commission for their outstanding and dedicated service to Seattle. Complete the nomination form by September 30, 2025.

Finalists in each category will be announced in the Fall and winners will be recognized at the year-end Boards and Commissions Appreciation Reception hosted by the Office of the City Clerk on behalf of the Mayor and Seattle City Council.

Criteria for nomination

In their capacity as a member of a City of Seattle Board or Commission, nominees must:

- Demonstrate commitment to access, diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Have made exemplary contributions to the common good through their service.
- Be serving as an active member.

Award categories

Individuals

- Emerging Civil Leader Award: Recognizes an individual of any age who is in the early stages of their civic engagement on a City of Seattle board or commission and who demonstrates exceptional leadership and innovation (1 to 4 years of service at the time of nomination).
- City of Seattle Civil Leader of the Year Award: Recognizes a long-term board or commission member whose contributions exemplify the highest attributes of civic engagement and public service (5+ years of service at the time of nomination).

Board or Commission

- Collaboration and Community Engagement Award: Recognizes a board or commission for leveraging their outreach, engagement and collaboration efforts to amplify and empower community and underrepresented voices.
- Innovation and Impact Award: Recognizes a board or commission as a collective that has offered creative, innovative solutions and recommendations that significantly impacted City of Seattle's programs, policies, services and/or legislation.

Nomination Process

Nominations are open to the public, and anyone is welcome to submit one. Board or commission members may also self-nominate. Before completing the online nomination form, please review the required fields below to prepare a response (250 words minimum).

Individual award categories

- Provide a clear, specific description of the nature, extent, level of effort and time period of nominee's service. Consider the nominee's contribution, ideas, leadership capacity, and accomplishments.
- How has the nominee demonstrated their commitment to access, diversity, equity and inclusion?

Board or Commission award categories

- Fully explain the impact of service—whether it benefits large numbers of people, significantly impacts the welfare of a few, or influences major issues, policy, programs and/or City services.
- How has this board or commission demonstrated their commitment to access, diversity, equity and inclusion?

Selection Process

The selection committee is a diverse group representing Seattle, including government and non-government organizations. Individuals or boards or commissions with multiple nominations in one category do not guarantee selection. The selection committee will review all nomination submissions and select winners who are exemplary in each category.
