➤ N/A

V. WA State Attorney General: Model Use of Force Policy Feedback – HB1310

- Review & Vote
- WA State Legislature passed HB 1310 last year: :Use of Force tactics
- Attorney General’s Office had to put together a Model UOF policy and we reviewed and gave feedback on this model policy
- We gave feedback surrounding how the Model Policy would interact with departments already established policies
- CPC will include a Cover Letter that highlights how the Model Policy will interact with collective bargaining
- The document will be updated with feedback discussed today and recirculated to the CPC

Action: Motion to approve the Feedback for the Model Use of Force Policy with updates

VI. Management Action Recommendation reviews (2020OPA-0082 & 2017OPA-1085)

- Review & Vote
- CPC s been reviewing and giving recommendations for specific Management Action Reviews
- Reviewed a case with the use of vehicles as deadly weapons: We are asking for clarity and consistency on how this policy is handled
- Second MAR reviewed was surrounding High Risk Vehicle Stops: Offices were accused of inappropriate and aggressive behavior at the stop
- CPC recommends clear policy, procedures, and training for high risk vehicle stops
- CPC Also recommends improved communication between SPD patrol and the auto division

VII. City Council Ordinance – Chief of Police Investigations Feedback

- New piece of legislation being considered by City Council that seeks to address the technical gap of how the Chief of Police would be disciplined if there a was a complaint against them.
- The Chief of Police is in charge of deciding discipline for officers after OPA's review. There is a conflict of interest with the Chief having to possibly decide their own discipline if a complain were lodged and reviewed
- CPC reviewed this legislation and gave recommendations and feedback for the document

VIII. Department Updates

- City Council: City council has fully approved two recommendations for potential incentives. Upcoming things we are reviewing are SPD Finances 911 response times.
- Mayor's Office: (Not Present)
- Monitoring Team: Working on 2022 Monitor Plan. This week's Seattle VMAP meeting has been cancelled
- Department of Justice (DOJ): No Updates
- Office of Police Accountability (OPA): We will have 4 new civilian employees onboarded for June and July
- Office of Inspector General (OIG): We are hiring for 2 new positions. SER is completing Wave 3 and preparing to move into Wave 4

IX. Public Comment
