V. Community Police Commission Updates

- Co-Chair Updates
  - Welcome new Commissioner, Phillip Sanchez
  - Monitor organized a meeting with accountability partners to discuss the way forward under remaining parts of consent decree. Accountability partners went line by line through the monitoring plan and walked away with a better understanding of what each entity's role is. No discussion about when the consent decree might be lifted. Discussion about how things were going to be done correctly.
- Executive Director Updates
  - CPC staff are at the International Association of Chiefs of Police Conference which includes a range of policing topics.
  - Executive Director and Community Engagement Director will attend the annual consent decree conference.

- Commissioner's Workgroup Updates
  - Even though short staff with policy team the expectation is that work groups continue to work and meet amongst themselves.
- Complainant Appeals
  - Next meeting will include Dr. Rosenthal bringing back some of his findings.
- Behavioral Health
  - Next Crisis Intervention Training at Burien Training center is scheduled for 11/13-17 and 12/11-15. Commissioner Newman scheduled to go in December.
- Legislative Update
  - Working on a contract with a lobbyist to help build relationships in Olympia.
