

April 18, 2023

To All Interested Parties:

I am pleased to announce the availability of up to $3,827,366 of General Fund for the 2023 Family Support Request for Proposals (RFP). Funding awards will be made for the period of January 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024. Contracts after the initial period will be contingent upon successful performance and funding availability.

The Family Support RFP Guidelines and Application documents define investment results, requirements, and the process for application submission and selection. Please plan to attend the information session listed below to review the RFP and ask questions.
