Daytime residential burglaries in Upper Queen Anne

Crime Prevention Coordinator Barb Biondo from Seattle Police Department · 20 Feb

We are seeing a slight uptick in residential burglaries occurring during daytime hours in upper Queen Anne with the burglar gaining entry through unlocked doors and windows, or, by prying open windows and doors. We want to remind you to please, don't make it easy for the burglar - Always close and lock all windows, doors and sliders whenever you are away from home. Keep an eye out for your neighbor's place and ask them to keep an eye on yours. Report suspicious activity by calling 9-1-1. Please review the attached bulletins for more ideas on how to secure your home or apartment. For more crime prevention information or to schedule a free security assessment, contact me at barbara.biondo@seattle.gov or 206.233.0015.
