

30 – LID Review and Revision

LID Code Integration Process Description

Per Section S5.C.5.b of the permit, Seattle reviewed, revised and made effective development-related codes, rules and standards, or other enforceable documents to incorporate and require Low Impact Development (LID) Principles and LID Best Management Practices (BMPs). The intent of the revisions was to make LID the preferred and commonly-used approach to site development. The revisions minimize impervious surfaces, native vegetation loss, and stormwater runoff of development situations.

Overall Approach

The City of Seattle began its LID Code Integration process in May 2013 with an orientation meeting for NPDES Coordinators and supervisors in all relevant departments. At that initial kick-off meeting, the permit requirement was outlined, and an official workgroup was chartered to carry out the review-revise-make-effective process for City of Seattle development-related Codes and Standards. Basic elements of the workgroup chartering included:

- Establishing accountability at the Department level to carry out the permit requirement
- Establishing clear roles and responsibilities. Each Department, led by its NPDES Coordinator, was to have decision-making authority over policy decisions affected their Code(s) and was to be responsible/accountable for meeting all regulatory deadlines. If legislative action were to be required, each Department would manage its own outreach and legislative process.
- Law was available to advise on legal questions. The Office of Sustainability was established as the coordinator and facilitator of necessary inter-departmental policy discussions and decision-making.
- A consistent approach (evaluation/reporting form) would be adopted, to ensure both a similar level of inquiry/analysis across departments and a similar approach to reporting.
- The workgroup would meet quarterly for one year and as needed beyond that time. As the process evolved, Department-specific meetings became more useful than large group check-ins, so this approach became the norm.

In September of 2013, this ‘bottom-up’ approach was further supported with a ‘top-down’ letter from the Director of Seattle Public Utilities to all relevant department heads, underscoring the seriousness of the Permit requirement, the need for staff to be assigned and given adequate time to work on the integration process, and the risk of penalties associated with failure to meet compliance deadlines. A senior-level policy advisor, with a dual appointment in Seattle Public Utilities and the Office of Sustainability and Environment, was assigned to coordinate the City-wide process. And a senior staff attorney in the Law Department was assigned to support staff in all relevant departments.

Departments completed their revision processes on time, including passing legislation, where required, by January 15, 2016, the alternative date established in accordance with S5.C.5.a.iii of the permit. Training to support relevant staff's effort to implement revisions will continue throughout 2016.

Following are the review analyses for the documents reviewed. The review considered the LID categories: site planning; soils; landscaping, native vegetation, street landscaping; hard and impervious surfaces; bulk and dimensional considerations; clearing and grading; streets and roads; parking; design guidelines and standards; stormwater management and maintenance; zoning requirements; and critical areas and shoreline management. For each of the categories, a symbol indicates minimization of impervious surface, native vegetation loss, and stormwater runoff.

Measures to minimize impervious surfaces

Measures to minimize loss of native vegetation

Other measures to minimize stormwater runoff

Each analysis includes a description, if applicable, of how the requirement was changed to make LID the preferred and commonly-used approach to site development. The review also identified areas that Seattle had already incorporated LID principles into the development requirements.

The following review summaries are identified with the corresponding numbers identified in the header of the document:

City of Seattle Report Form

Low Impact Development (LID) Integration

Code/Document/ Rule/ Standard Reviewed: City of Seattle Standard Plans

Step 1 – WHO was part of your Project Team?

Name	Job title	Job description	Department
Wan-Yee Kuo	Supervising Civil Engineer, CIP Design	Lead	Seattle Public Utilities (SPU)
Erich Ellis (and delegates)	Program Manager, Engineering/Design	Review/redline/concurrence	Seattle Dept. of Transportation (SDOT)
Mary Rutherford	Executive Liaison between SPU & SDOT	Process facilitation	Seattle Public Utilities
Randy Earlywine	Citywide Standards Program Manager	Review/Concurrence Coordinator with Citywide Standard Plans & Specs. Team	Seattle Public Utilities

Step 2 – WHAT topics did you review?

City Standard Plans were reviewed to identify opportunities to minimize impervious surface and vegetation loss. Given that on-site stormwater management best management practices such as bioretention are an effective strategy for minimizing stormwater runoff, City Standard Plans were also reviewed with the intent of updating or adding plans to facilitate and standardize the use of these approaches where feasible/indicated.

Step 3 – WHERE are the gaps?

See reporting form that follows.

Step 4 – What steps did you take to FILL THE GAPS?

See attached set of redlined Standard Plans that were added or modified in this process.

The new/updated plans are also available online here:

www.seattle.gov/util/cs/groups/public/@spu/@engineering/documents/webcontent/1\_048312.pdf

These updates will be included in the next published (paper) version of City of Seattle Standard Plans. In the interim, the online amendments are final and applicable.

Step 5 – IDENTIFY any other City documents/documents that may be affected by the proposed revisions in Step 4.

						New content was added to the section that details what should be included in the Basis of Design report and why: The basis-of-design documentation communicates design intent primarily to staff and future users of a constructed facility. By documenting the basis of design and archiving it with the project folder, future staff has access to design decisions. Options Analysis should have identified any special conditions that should be included in design including what LID principles will be applied to this project. This document should identify how the LID principles will be applied. The basis-of –design document should be completed in the 30% design phase. This document is required to be included in the material needed for Stage Gate 3 approval and should be reviewed and modified for any changes that have occurred during design.

Process for Reviewing and Revising the Right-of-Way Improvement Manual (ROWIM)

Background

The City of Seattle under the leadership of Seattle Public Utilities is a recognized leader in stormwater management and implementation of Green Stormwater Infrastructure. Beginning in 1979 the City of Seattle began requiring flow control on all projects with more than 2,000 square feet of developed area. Beginning in 2009 Seattle required Green Stormwater Infrastructure (GSI) to the maximum extent feasible (MEF) on projects with more than 2,000 square feet of new plus replaced impervious surface.

The Right of Way Improvement Manual was developed by Seattle Department of Transportation (SDOT) to provide a resource to help property owners, developers, contractors and engineers and architects with permits and design and construction of improvements in the right-of-way. The ROWIM added a section to the manual on GSI in 2009 to provide guidance for incorporating GSI into right-of-way improvements to make it easier to include these elements in design.

The modifications to the document that are included in the summary table are intended to address new guidance and requirements that have been incorporated into the 2016 Stormwater Code that will go into effect on January 1, 2016 and to accomplish the goals of the Washington State Department of Ecology to minimize impervious surface, preserve native vegetation and minimize stormwater runoff when construction and new development occur.

How SDOT Conducted the Review

SDOT retained Herrera Consultants to perform an independent review of the ROWIM for compliance with the 2016 Stormwater Code and Ecology’s goals. They created a roadmap for assessing compliance by identifying general categories and specific topics within the categories pertaining to stormwater management.

A topic could follow one of three paths. Some of the topics, while applicable to stormwater management in general, do not pertain to development and construction in the right-of-way and would not be applicable for inclusion in the ROWIM. Under the heading of “Topic Reviewed” these topics were classified as “does not apply”. The rest of the topics identified by Herrera were classified “yes” under the heading “Topic Reviewed”. If the section pertaining to the topic reviewed was in compliance with the updated code and Ecology requirements the box for “Gap Identified” was checked “no” and no further action was required. All remaining topics were classified as “yes” under “Gap Identified”.

SPU and the Office of Sustainability & Environment (OSE) also reviewed the table and manual and provided comments. SDOT reviewed the table and comments by Herrera, SPU and OSE and SDOT completed Steps 4. When SDOT answered the question in Step 4 “have you taken any steps to fill the gaps” with a “yes” or “no”. Where SDOT responded “no”; they provided an explanation for their response. Where SDOT responded “yes” that they had taken measures to fill the gap they provided a description of what has been changed in the manual to fill the gap.

Step 2 WHAT topics did you review?			Step 3 WHERE are the gaps?			Step 4 Have you taken any steps to FILL THE GAPS?	Step 5 Are you aware of any other City codes/ documents that may be affected?

	Stormwater management facility locations	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	ROWIM, Section 4.17.3 – Stormwater Collection	This section describes the spacing requirements for catch basins based on stormwater flow path lengths. It states that arterial streets with a grade flatter than 1% shall have drainage pickups (catch basins and/or inlets) at least every 350 feet.  Considered making exceptions in locations where infiltrating GSI facilities will be installed.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 4.21.2 – Design Criteria (Clearances)	This section lists standard clearances for a number of items including sidewalks, stop signs, curbs, etc.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No SDOT followed up and reviewed the minimum lateral clearances. Minimum lateral clearances identified in this section have been determined based on public safety considerations. Reductions in these minimums may be considered on a project specific basis through a deviation process where the applicant has the opportunity to explain how a reduction in the clearance does not significantly impact public safety. The deviation process is outlined in Section 2.11.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 5.8 – Construction Stormwater Control	This section summarizes construction stormwater control requirements for small projects and large projects. Considered adding a summary of stormwater requirements for project types that require GSI to MEF (On-site Stormwater Management that are included in the new Seattle Stormwater Manual).	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No SDOT refers to code sections in the ROWIM wherever possible rather than repeating information included in these regulations. This is because 1) these documents are not updated simultaneously so the information could be out of date and 2) sometimes condensing the information leads to unintended interpretations. The user is always getting current accurate information on requirements, standards and options when links are provided to the current governing documents.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No

		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No	ROWIM, Section 4.17.2- Stormwater Code Compliance	This section describes the Amended Soil requirement (minimum requirement for all projects). The section provides the following guidance due to concerns that compost-amended soils may compact irregularly: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Seattle City Light (SCL) and Puget Sound Energy (PSE) require a 3-foot setback around all utility infrastructures</li> <li>SPU also recommends a 3-foot setback from water meters</li> </ul> Soils should be compacted within 1 foot of a curb or sidewalk	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Does not apply New language: All language removed and refers to the Stormwater code to avoid confusion.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Does not apply

Considered requiring Silva cell type systems to promote healthy tree growth.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No SDOT works with applicants on a project and site specific basis to select designs that promote healthy trees. Silva cells are not considered the best alternative in all instances for healthy tree growth.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No

		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 4.14- Street Trees and Landscape Architectural Standards	This section includes information and design criteria for street trees.  Considered revising to include other landscaping between the sidewalk and the street, and allowing planted area within LID facilities to count towards open space or landscaping requirements.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes Planting strip treatments: Plants in planting strips vary greatly in their potential to provide optimum pedestrian and environmental benefits. Though SDOT allows the installation of grass the department encourages the installation of raingardens, bioretention, permeable pavement, low (24-30 inches) shrubs, perennial or groundcover plantings that provide a superior degree of environmental benefit and separation between the sidewalk and street at reduced maintenance costs. Under some conditions, a combination of the plantings and grass or plantings and pavers may be appropriate depending on the street classification and need to accommodate parking in the curb lane.  Refer to the Stormwater Manual Volume 3 – Project Stormwater Control Chapter 5 – BMP Design for guidance on integrating bioretention, rain gardens, permeable pavement or stormwater conveyance and treatment into the planting strip plan.  Planting strips—grading: The final grade of soil surfaces in planting strips must accommodate runoff from sidewalk surfaces cross-sloped to drain toward the street. In cases where a mounded planting strip is proposed to provide a more effective separation between the sidewalk and street, a centerline height of 6” above the adjacent sidewalk grade is typical and gaps between mounded areas must be provided so that backup of runoff and ponding does not occur on the paved sidewalk.  Planting strip paving: Up to 40% of the area in planting strips may be paved if the following conditions are met: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Paving is done in combination with street trees;</li> <li>• Related landscape architectural features pose no public safety concern; and</li> <li>• The combination of paving and trees provides an equal or better balance of functional and environmental benefits than a fully planted condition.</li> <li>• Paved area is not used for parking.</li> </ul> Pervious pavement materials are encouraged to allow for the infiltration of runoff from the sidewalk before it enters the street to maximize the water quality entering the planting strip. Paving materials and installation details are found in the Stormwater Manual Volume 3 – Project Stormwater Control Chapter 5 – BMP Design.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No

	Landscaping requirements for street frontages (cont.)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 6.5.10 – Landscaping for Traffic Calming Devices	This section describes the responsibilities for planting and maintenance of traffic calming devices after they are built. Residents are responsible for the maintenance of traffic circle plantings. Considered some flexibility for maintenance responsibilities if a traffic calming device (traffic circle or curb bulb) is also used for a GSI installation. This section also states that If a volunteer signs up to maintain plantings, soil and plants will be supplied; otherwise, the device will be covered in asphalt. Considered relaxing this requirement to allow some support from SDOT in providing and maintaining vegetation in traffic calming devices.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No Roads are crowned in the center so that drainage is directed to the edges where it is either picked up in a piped system or with GSI. Considered revising language to include measures to take to avoid compaction of soil and protect existing infiltration rate where GSI facilities are planned on site.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes The language was revised to state that measures must be taken to avoid compaction of soil where GSI facilities are planned on site.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
	Conserving native vegetation/soils	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 5.9– Demolition and Grading During Construction	See description of this section under “Compaction”. 		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM 5.13 – Acceptance/ Warranty Procedures for Improvement Projects	This section describes a 1-year surety bond for project functionality.  Considered revising language to add a required landscape bond to ensure plant survival within 1 year of planting.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes All surety bonds for street right-of-way improvements including landscaping and GSI elements are kept for a year to ensure that all improvements retain functionality during that period. After one year, the SDOT Inspector returns to the project site to inspect for vegetation distress and any apparent workmanship shortcomings that qualify as a safety hazard to pedestrian and vehicle traffic. If the area is safe for public use, then the bond is released and the project considered closed.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
	Construction sequencing	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 2.5 – Right-of-Way Use Permits	This section involves obtaining a Street Use permit for temporary use of the ROW for equipment and material storage, staging or other activities during construction on private property.  Considered revising language to include fees for environmental damages that may occur from use of the ROW including impacts to existing or planned GSI facilities.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No Legislation must be passed to levy fees for environmental damages. 	Street and Roads

	Travel lane widths	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 4.6.2 – Design Criteria (Roadway Width)	In this section, minimum lane widths are defined for various lane types. Review widths and considered reducing where feasible since these may restrict GSI implementation in the ROW.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No SDOT is a leader in making streets in an urban environment safe for all users. One of the strategies used is to keep lane widths to a minimum depending on the roadway function and emergency vehicle access. The standard widths in the ROWIM reflect minimums that are required by the Local Agency Government (LAG) Manual.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROW IM, Section 4.13.2- Bicycle Facilities	This section lists the minimum widths required for bicycle lanes.  Considered encouraging shared lanes/climbing lanes when safety permits or directing bicycle traffic to less trafficked streets to keep lanes narrower and provide more room for LID implementation.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No Current best practice for bicycle facility design does not include sharrows. This change has been made to make biking more attractive to a broader range of riders to increase ridership. SDOT has identified parallel routes on many corridors.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
	Right-of-way widths	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 3.1.2 – Coordination with SDOT Street Use	This section states “When new street improvements are required and the existing street right-of-way width does not meet the established width, additional street right-of-way shall be dedicated.”  Considered revising to exempt GSI facilities.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No Implementation of GSI facilities benefit from a widened right of way that results from a dedication so this does not negatively impact implementation of GSI. Further, dedication requirements are established in the Land Use Code. The ROWIM lets the applicant know that this may be a requirement under certain conditions.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No
		<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes	ROWIM, Section 4.6.2 – Design Criteria (Roadway Width)	In this section, minimum roadway widths are defined for various land use zones.  Review widths and considered reducing where feasible since these may restrict GSI implementation in the ROW.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No The lane widths in the tables are compliant with State Standards for City and County road design standards (LAG Manual). SDOT has a deviation process for projects to propose reduced lane widths. It is explained in Section 2.11. Permeable pavement systems can be designed to provide differing degrees of flow control. Two categories of permeable pavement systems are included in the stormwater manual: permeable pavement facilities and permeable pavement surfaces. Design information is provided in the Section 5.4.6 and 5.6.2 of Volume 3: Project Stormwater Control, Stormwater Manual, DPD DR 21-2015/SPU DR DWW-200 , Standard Plan 425 in Standard Plans 400 Series: Street Paving &amp; Appurtenance (2014) , Standard and Specifications Division 5: Surface Treatments and Pavements(2014) . - Contractors are required to protect the CRZ and dripline of street trees. Guidance is provided on how to calculate the CRZ and dripline areas.
- More detail is added regarding appropriate pruning techniques, timing, and certifications necessary to engage in any pruning activities. The updated STM provides more stringent requirements and proof of a need to perform maintenance on new or mature street trees.
- Guidance is also provided to help home owners choose an appropriate tree professional for any tree care needs they may be responsible for.
- Provides additional guidance on protecting trees during construction practices and updates best practices for different types of tree protection.

Tree Protection Information for Other Contractors
Tree Protection and Preservation - Introduction
Street trees shall be retained and protected from incidental impacts, injury, and damage by permitted or unpermitted construction or use of space in the right-of-way. The following requirements come from the City of Seattle's Right-of-Way Improvements Manual, Chapter 4.14 that describes the City's regulations for the installation of any improvements into the public place. The engineering standards come from City of Seattle Standard Plans and Specifications for Municipal Construction. All permittees are required to follow these plans and specifications whenever there is work in the City's rights-of-way.
 To prevent injury to street trees, no work may occur within a street tree's critical root zone (CRZ or 'Zone A') without specific authorization from SDOT Urban Forestry. Work within the dripline ('Zone B') of a street tree requires that specific actions be taken to ensure that the tree, its roots, and the soil are protected from construction damage. Construction activities in these zones affect both the tree's canopy and the tree's roots, and adequate protection measures are required to protect street trees from damage.
 Each street tree within a work zone that is not approved for removal shall be fenced, including all unpaved areas of the critical root zone to prevent compaction, grading or other disturbance. See Tree Protection Fencing detail at the end of this section of the manual. The critical root zone must be shown on all site plans for the permitted activity. Improvements or activities such as removal of pavement, repair of pavement, new paving, utility, and irrigation trenching and other ancillary activities shall occur outside the critical root zone, unless authorized by SDOT Urban Forestry. See Standard Plan 133 drawing below for a depiction of the required critical root zone protection area.

Appendix A

Pruning Requirements

Abutting property owners are required to prune street trees to achieve compliance with existing vertical clearance standards as shown in the Tree Selection and Spacing portion of the Street Tree Planting section of this manual. Pruning to meet ROW clearance standards shall also include work to minimize obstructions with other transportation infrastructure (streetlights, traffic signals, signs, etc.) while ensuring the health and natural growth habit of the street tree. Abutting property owners are required to obtain a permit if the pruning constitutes major pruning. No permit is required for minor pruning.

Any person intending to perform major pruning of a street tree must obtain an SDOT Street Use permit prior to performing the work. Major pruning is defined as:

Removal of branches two inches in diameter or greater; removal of roots two inches in diameter or greater; or removal of branches constituting more than 15 percent of a tree's foliage bearing area.

Applications for an SDOT Street Use permit to perform major pruning must include a pruning plan and be submitted with the Street Use permit application. The plan must be approved by SDOT. The pruning plan must comply with the minimum Right of Way clearance standards and the following major pruning standards:

Maximum Pruning Allowed: SDOT Urban Forestry will evaluate maximum pruning on an individual tree basis. No more than ¼ (25 percent) of the functioning leaf and stem area may be removed within one calendar year on any street tree. Foliage pruning may not remove branches or limbs to a degree that would cause the tree to be physically or aesthetically unbalanced. Trees are individual in form and structure, and pruning needs may not always fit strict rules. The permit applicant shall assume all responsibility for special pruning practices that vary from the standards outlined in this manual. A pruning plan submitted at the time of permit application shall demonstrate that the proposed work conforms to the maximum pruning guidelines described here:

Types of Pruning: There are six types of pruning that may be performed on mature Street trees. Prior to performing major pruning, the tree worker is required to be familiar with these types of pruning as defined and described in ANSI A300 (Part 1): Standard Practices for Tree, Shrub, and Other Woody Plant Management. The pruning plan submitted at the time of permit application shall use these terms to describe the proposed work.

Crown Cleaning	The removal of dead, dying, diseased, crowded, weakly attached, low-vigor branches, and water sprouts from a tree crown.
Crown Thinning	The selective removal of branches to increase light penetration and air movement, and to reduce weight.
Crown Raising	The removal of the lower branches of a tree in order to provide clearance.
Crown Restoration	Crown restoration pruning should improve the structure, form, and appearance of trees that have been severely headed, vandalized, or storm damaged.
Crown Reduction	The reduction of the top, sides, or individual limbs by the means of removal of a leader or longest portion of a limb to a lateral no less than one-third of the total diameter of the original limb removing no more than one-fourth of the leaf surface.
Utility Pruning	The removals of branches to prevent the loss of utility service, prevent damage to equipment, avoid impairment, and uphold the intended usage of the utility space. Only a qualified line clearance tree trimmer or qualified line clearance tree trimmer trainee should perform this work.

Pruning Guidance

Distressed trees require as much leaf area as possible to overcome stressed conditions.

To avoid additional injury, the following measures may be followed for these trees:

- Injury or Disturbance: If a tree has been damaged by injury or disturbance, delay pruning until deadwood becomes evident (typically 1 to 3 years after injury). Crown cleaning is recommended in these cases.
- Neglect: Trees that have received little or no care or maintenance may need moderate crown thinning, reduction of end weights or entire crown restoration.

Hazardous trees of any species may be pruned any time of the year for risk abatement reasons.

Pruning Young trees

The average life expectancy for trees growing in harsh urban conditions is much shorter than if the tree is growing in ideal conditions. Pruning trees early will improve life expectancy and is a proven, cost-effective measure to prevent costly intervention in the future. Well-timed and careful pruning results in safer trees with fewer branch failures.

- Should be pruned during the second or third year after planting to improve their structure, and only minor crown cleaning every 3-7 years thereafter. Refer to ISA Tree Pruning Guidelines for more detailed information:
http://www.treesaregood.com/treecare/pruning\_young.aspx
- Do not top the main leader.
- Select permanent branching and allow temporary low branching on the lowest part of the trunk to remain. Main branches should eventually be spaced at least 18-inches apart to alleviate a tight grouping of branches.

Timing of Pruning

To reduce the probability of insect infestation, disease or infection:

Pine (Pinus spp.) or Elm (Ulmus spp.): Do not prune May-October to reduce possible exposure to bark beetle (pine) or Dutch Elm Disease (elm)

Other considerations:

Avoid pruning during the flush of spring shoot growth and during fall, prior to dormancy

Trees with thin bark: Do not prune in summer when sun scald injury may be a factor

Deciduous trees (leafless in winter): Best pruned November-February, but can be pruned any time throughout the year for safety-related issues.

Additional Notes:

Title 15 referred to the following:

- City's Standard Plans and Specifications
- Land Use Code, Section 23.54.030 (Driveway Widths)

The Pavement Opening and Restoration Rule (PORR) 5-2009 is also associated with Title 15 of the SMC. In tandem with the above-described changes to Title 15, a memorandum of clarification has also been issued to users of the PORR as follows:

“The current version of the SDOT Street and Sidewalk Pavement Opening and Restoration Director’s Rule (PORR) requires pervious (porous) pavements be restored to their original design and specifications. In order to remain in compliance with the Department of Ecology requirements relating to the City of Seattle’s Municipal Stormwater Permit, the PORR is revised to include restoration of porous sidewalk segments as well as street segments. The relevant PORR sections are:

3.7.13 Pervious (porous) pavements: Certain street segments may be designed and constructed as pervious pavements. As of the date of this Rule (2004), the only block of pervious pavement that has been designed is 32nd Ave SW between SW Juneau St and SW Raymond St; however, other blocks of pervious pavement may be constructed in the future. Pervious pavements are to be restored to their original design and specifications, to the extent practicable. Restoration plans shall be reviewed for approval by SPU Engineering Services, (206) 684-5950, prior to the start of any excavation or removal.

Application of Rule to Pavement and Sidewalk Restoration

Streets and sidewalks may be designed and constructed as porous or permeable pavements. The most common surfacing material used in this application is porous concrete, identifiable by its open graded appearance. It is anticipated that other porous materials such as interlocking pavers will be used in the future. This porous material is considered green stormwater infrastructure (GSI).

Porous pavements are to be restored to their original design and specifications, to the extent practicable. Restoration plans shall be reviewed for approval by SPU Engineering Services, (206) 684-5950, prior to the start of any excavation or removal. Porous pavements are drainage structures and must be restored so that their infiltration characteristics are preserved. During construction, dirt and sediment must be contained to protect the surrounding surface from clogging.”

This document is used during 0-10% Right-of-way project development. The document prompts the designer to consider what is appropriate to include and consider during ROW project design, but it doesn't set standards or requirements. It is used at a very high level, before project design.

Step 1 – WHO was part of your Project Team?

Name	Job title	Job description	Department
Michelle Marx	Strategic Advisor	Complete Streets coordinator	SDOT
Maureen Meehan	Stormwater Program Manager	NPDES compliance manager for SDOT	SDOT

Step 2 – WHAT topics did you review?

The topics below belong to one or more of the following categories:

-  Measures to minimize impervious surfaces
-  Measures to minimize loss of native vegetation
-  Other measures to minimize stormwater runoff

Step 3 – WHERE are the gaps?

Fill out the following table for any section of the Document/ Document/ Rule/ Standard that may potentially conflict with implementation of LID BMPs based on the topics outlined in Step 2.

Step 4 – What steps did you take to FILL THE GAPS?

What alternative language has been drafted and adopted to address the conflict/gap?

Step 5 – IDENTIFY any other City documents/documents that may be affected by the proposed revisions in Step 4.

Additional Notes:

The existing Comprehensive Plan does not mention Low Impact Development as a concept, but contains numerous policies about the importance of LID techniques including trees, vegetation, green stormwater infrastructure, permeable surfaces, green roofs, and other elements. We are currently in the process of updating the Comprehensive Plan and are using this update as an opportunity to elevate and clarify the importance of LID.
