

Seattle

Seattle's Sweetened Beverage Tax Community Advisory Board Contribute Your Voice, Leadership, and Experience.

Apply to be a Board Member

The Sweetened Beverage Tax Community Advisory Board advises the Mayor and City Council on programs and services that increase healthy food access and support child development.

We are 11 members appointed by the Mayor and City Council and serve four-year terms.

What is involved?

- Attend monthly board meetings.
- Contribute your voice, leadership, and experience in developing recommendations on food access and prenatal-to-three programs.
- Connect community priorities to government planning.

How to Apply:

Submit your application, letter of interest, and resume using the online form →

Submission Deadline: January 17, 2025

The Board is interested in hearing from people who live or work in Seattle and who are:

- Affiliated with community-based organizations, coalitions, or groups that work on issues related to food justice, health equity, and/or early child development.
- Experienced in community collaboration and desire to build trust with government.
- Committed to our values of racial and social justice.

We are recruiting for representation in the following Board positions:

- Food Access (two openings)
- Public Health & Nutrition (two openings)
- Early Learning (Birth-to-Five)

For More Information:

About the Board | Seattle.gov →

Email: bridget.igoe@seattle.gov