

Forecast of Seattle CPI-U, All items (1982-84=100)

Updated 9-19-12

|               | Index:1982-84=100 | Annualgrowth rate |
|---------------|-------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 2000 (actual) | 179.2                         | 3.7%                  |
| 2001 (actual) | 185.7                         | 3.6%                  |
| 2002 (actual) | 189.3                         | 1.9%                  |
| 2003 (actual) | 192.3                         | 1.6%                  |
| 2004 (actual) | 194.7                         | 1.2%                  |
| 2005 (actual) | 200.2                         | 2.8%                  |
| 2006 (actual) | 207.6                         | 3.7%                  |
| 2007 (actual) | 215.656                       | 3.9%                  |
| 2008 (actual) | 224.719                       | 4.2%                  |
| 2009 (actual) | 226.028                       | 0.6%                  |
| 2010 (actual) | 226.693                       | 0.3%                  |
| 2011 (actual) | 232.765                       | 2.7%                  |
| 2012          | 238.718                       | 2.6%                  |
| 2013          | 244.018                       | 2.2%                  |
| 2014          | 250.088                       | 2.5%                  |
| 2015          | 256.120                       | 2.4%                  |
| 2016          | 262.138                       | 2.3%                  |
| 2017          | 268.581                       | 2.5%                  |
| 2018          | 275.207                       | 2.5%                  |
| 2019          | 281.994                       | 2.5%                  |
| 2020          | 288.951                       | 2.5%                  |

NOTE: CPI-U covers all urban consumers.

Source: U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics; The Puget Sound Economic Forecaster, prepared by Conway Pedersen Economics, Inc.