

2024 EJ FUND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CONSULTANTS

The Environmental Justice Fund Technical Assistance Consultants are available to clarify EJ Fund funding priorities, discuss project ideas for EJ Fund alignment, review draft proposals and provide high level feedback, as well as provide high-level edits. Meet the 2024 consultants:

Nancy Huizar is a longtime South Seattle resident with leadership experience in environmental justice. Nancy has experience in writing grants and has served on grant funding committees. They are principal of their business, NHuizar Consulting. They hold a degree in Aquatic and Fishery Sciences from the University of Washington. Nancy has experience in research, policy, community organizing, and education and outreach. They have led campaigns advocating for a Green New Deal in Seattle, accessible green jobs, and healthy communities for all. In their free time, Nancy can be found walking their dog or munching at local eateries and restaurants.

Nanette Fok is a grantwriting consultant working with nonprofit agencies based in the greater Seattle area. She has the privilege of helping to build the capacity and sustainability of organizations that support the health, well-being and empowerment of innumerable community members. She has worked in fundraising and organizational development for over 20 years, with broad-based experience that includes foundation and government grantseeking, grantmaking, individual donor development, special events coordination and strategic planning. She currently sits on the boards of Wing Luke Museum of the Asian Pacific American Experience and Mu Films.
