

Paws on Patrol

seattle.gov/crime-prevention

What is the Paws on Patrol Program?

You can help prevent crime while you are walking your dog!

Paws on Patrol encourages dog walkers to serve as extra eyes and ears for the Seattle Police Department.

This program trains pet owners to prevent crime, as well as recognize and report suspicious activity.

Get a free dog tag when you join!

For more information:

Contact Crime Prevention Coordinator

Jennifer Danner jennifer.danner@seattle.gov

SPD Crime Prevention

6/2019 V.1