

This map illustrates the Green Lake neighborhood, a prominent area in Seattle. The map features a dense network of streets, with major roads like Aurora Avenue and Greenwood Avenue clearly marked. The neighborhood is characterized by its proximity to Green Lake and Salmon Bay, which are shown in light blue. The Ship Canal is also visible, running through the lower portion of the map. The map uses a color-coded system to distinguish between different types of streets and areas, with various shades of blue and green. The map is oriented with North at the top, and the city center is visible in the background.
