

The Certified Information Privacy Professional/United States sector specific course (CIPP/US) provides a foundational understanding of privacy law and practices around the world, with a focus on the United States sector. Students will emerge with an understanding of the federal and state statutes and laws pertaining to privacy. For a detailed outline of the topics covered in this course, please go here.

Please consult with your departmental HR or training coordinator about classes that are available for you to take.